Price Floor On Corn Is Sought

Farm Belt GOP Set To Back Legislation

WASHINGTON (AP) — Farm belt Republicans in Congress will back new farm legislation calling for a price floor for corn, although Secretary of Agriculture Benson would prefer otherwise.

This was learned from members of a 14-member GOP delegation of senators and representatives who discussed the farm legislation situation with Benson at his office Wednesday.

House Calls Benson

Benson has been called before the House agriculture committee next Monday to outline Eisenhower administration recommendations for possible changes in the farm law.

At the Agriculture Department meeting Wednesday, Benson and culture committees—agreed there bers of the Senate and House agriculture legislators — mem is a need for a new corn program to stabilize production, supplies and prices.

The present program, based on legislation enacted in 1938, has been largely ineffective because it has called for larger voluntary acreage cutbacks than farmers have been willing to accept.

Brings High Production

The result, Benson said in a statement Wednesday, has been excessive corn production, low prices, undue stimulation of livestock production and probably inadequate participation in the new soil bank program offering subsidies for taking land out of production of surplus crops.

Benson and the Republican congressmen agreed Congress should authorize a new corn program patterned after one farmers rejected at a recent referendum. This plan was approved by 61.2 per cent of the growers voting. But the majority was short of the necessary two-thirds.

The GOP congressmen said they wanted one change in this plan—elimination of a provision which would have allowed the secretary to get supports for corn between zero and 90 per cent of parity instead of the present range of 75 to 90 per cent.

Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in relation to their costs.

Winona Man Is Named Deputy

Members Of Sheriff's Staff Are Sworn In

LISBON — Sheriff-elect Russell J. VanFossan Wednesday announced his staff members, including a new deputy from Winona, who will begin their duties when he takes office as sheriff Monday. The staff members were sworn in yesterday by Common Pleas Court Judge Joel H. Sharp.

Deputy John Hollister of Lisbon will assume the chief deputy's position now held by VanFossan. Hollister started in the sheriff's office Jan. 1, 1953 when he was appointed to succeed Robert Cameron, also of Lisbon.

Field deputies will be: Robert Beresford of Wellsville, who started in August after getting a leave of absence from the Wellsville police department. He formerly served as a deputy for two years during Howard J. Clark's first term.

James Miller of Salineville appointed to fill the vacancy created when Deputy Albert Hartman resigned. Miller started April 1, 1956. Howard R. Gray, 34, of Winona, an employee of the Electric Furnace Co. in Salem. A machinist for 15 years, Gray was appointed by VanFossan as a new deputy. Gray was a Butler Township constable for eight years, and worked as a state park patrolman at Guilford Lake.

Gray graduated from Salem High School and is married to the former Ida Poulton, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Poulton of Middletown Road, east of Columbiana. The couple have two daughters, aged five and two.

Gray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hillis Gray, live in Winona. David "Buss" Price of Lisbon will continue as chief jailer. Ex-sheriff Howard J. Clark of New Waterford Rd. 1, will serve as one turnkey and George Chappell, 58, of Salem, former director of the Salem American Legion Quaker City Band, the other, Chappell returned from Florida during the past year after living there for several years. He was a music director in a private school in Florida. Prior to that he was a clerk in the Salem Smith Co. grocery store.

Richard Weston of East Liverpool will continue to serve as relief turnkey and radio man. Radio men will be the same men who served under sheriff Clark, Orville Scarry of Salineville, and Robert Applegate and Willis McCord of Lisbon.

Clark and Chappell are replacing Pete Brennan and Glenn Montgomery of Lisbon who were appointed turnkeys when the jail was opened in January, 1956.

Democrats, in the elected majority, expected to proceed to organize both houses in routine fashion. They expressed confidence Frank Lausche, resigning as Democratic governor of Ohio to take his oath as a senator, would vote with them to retain control of the Senate.

Lausche arrived in Washington Wednesday night still not saying how he would vote, but it made no immediate difference since Jacob M. Javits, Republican senator, will get about what he wants.

Ike To Plea For Middle East Aid

To Address Congress On Behalf of His Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower will make a personal plea to Congress, probably Friday, for standby authority to use U. S. military forces in the Middle East in the event of Russian aggression.

His secretary of state, John Foster Dulles, told congressional leaders Wednesday the situation in that area "is highly dangerous" and the "Soviet Union may well move to expand its own influence" there.

Whether Eisenhower's address to a joint session will come Friday, or early next week, depends on how quickly Senate and House can get organized and extend him a formal invitation.

The resolution Eisenhower seeks as outlined in tentative form by Dulles, would:

1. Authorize the President to "undertake programs of military and economic cooperation with free nations in the general area of the Middle East in order to strengthen and defend the independence of those nations."

2. Authorize the spending of 400 million dollars in economic aid to the Middle East over a period of two years beginning next July 1.

Those terms of the resolution, still in tentative form, were described in a statement released by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee with Dulles' approval after Dulles met with its members and Senate leaders for more than two hours in a closed-door night session.

"The secretary viewed the resolution as a deterrent to aggression and as a positive action on behalf of peace," the statement said. "Without the resolution, he thought the danger of war would be increased."

Met House Group

Earlier, Dulles spent more than an hour with a similar group from the House.

Afterward, Rep. Gordon (D-Ill.), chairman-designate of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, said, "We've got to do all we can to go along with the administration's policy on this."

Hearings will be started next week, he said.

Some senators voiced outright opposition and most of those attending the meeting with Dulles said they would ask further explanations before they commit themselves. But they appeared more concerned with getting the administration to "make out a case" for the proposal than with directly opposing it.

Sen. Dirksen (R-Ill.) predicted Eisenhower "will make a case" and gain approval.

GOP Will Attempt To Control Senate

Rejects Soviet Proposal For 5-Power Talks

U. S. To Make Disarmament Proposals In U. N., Ike Says

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower has told the Russians the United States will make "further proposals" on disarmament at the United Nations. But he has rejected, for the present at least, a Soviet proposal for five-power talks on the problem.

The White House Wednesday night made public Eisenhower's reply to a Nov. 17 message from Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin.

In that message, Bulganin had suggested that leaders of the United States, Russia, Britain, France and India sit down together to seek ways to bring about disarmament.

Britain and France reportedly have sent Moscow similar rejections.

In his reply, Eisenhower welcomed Bulganin's "apparent willingness" to consider even a limited form of the aerial inspection which this country has been urging since Eisenhower first proposed it at the 1955 Geneva summit conference. Previously, the Russians had opposed any such plan.

But Eisenhower shot back at what he referred to as the Soviet "attempt to dismiss as a 'slant'."

Knowland Says Lausche Holds Deciding Vote

Ohio Governor Not Present At Meeting Today Of Democrats

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said Republicans will try to take over control of the Senate today "if we have 48 votes."

Frank J. Lausche, former governor of Ohio elected as a Democrat, holds the deciding vote, Knowland said, adding that Republicans did not know how Lausche would vote.

The November election gave Democrats a 49-47 margin over Republicans, but Lausche had said during the campaign he might vote with Republicans to organize the Senate under certain circumstances.

Missed Democratic Meeting

He did not attend the initial conference of Democrats today and still would not say how he would vote.

He told newsmen he was not going to today's Democratic conference but said that "I will be at their conferences as time goes on."

Asked how he would vote on Senate organization, he replied that "I will declare myself this morning."

In response to questions about his absence from the Democratic conference, Lausche said he arrived here late Wednesday night and "I rested a bit this morning."

All Republicans Ready

Republicans who attended their closed door conference today said they could have all their forces present and voting if necessary when the Senate meets at noon.

Previous indications were that the GOP might have one missing vote—that of Sen.-elect Jacob K. Javits of New York, who had said he would finish out his term as New York state attorney general before taking his Senate oath.

Sen. Bridges (R-NH) said he understood Javits is in Washington and could be on hand to be sworn in and vote with the Republicans on organization if necessary.

However, Bridges said Javits preferred not to be sworn in today because that would make it necessary for him to resign as New York state attorney general and give that post to the Democrats.

If Javits were present, and if Lausche voted with the Republicans, that would mean a 48-48 tie which would be broken in favor of the GOP by Vice President Nixon.

Bettis Given County Post

Prosecutor Brokaw Names Him As Aide

LISBON — Atty. J. Warren Bettis, 32, of 17 E. Main St., Salineville, today was named assistant Columbiana County prosecutor by Prosecutor-elect G. William Brokaw.

Bettis, the new assistant prosecutor, has been a practicing attorney in Columbiana County for four years. He opened his first law office in East Palestine and after nine months there moved to Lisbon.

Brokaw formerly was assistant prosecutor.

State Patrol Barracks At Lisbon To Be Ready March 1

The State Patrol's new Columbiana County barracks at Lisbon is expected to be ready for occupancy about March 1.

Built along U.S. Route 30, a half-mile south of Lisbon, the modern patrol station is patterned after similar barracks elsewhere in the state. Cost of the structure will run between $50,000 and $65,000.

Built on a 280 by 220 foot lot on the west side of the highway, the building consists of a large main glass-enclosed office room, a barracks room, three smaller office rooms and a three-stall garage. In the basement will be a large assembly room, radio equipment room, and other rooms for auxiliary power, a gas-fired boiler, a pump room and storage quarters.

Lavatories are on the main floor, and also in the basement. A Diesel generator is in the basement to keep the patrol short-wave radio "alive" in the event of a power failure, Cpl. James Miller explained.

The barracks is being built by Bricker & Bricker, Salem contractors. It was originally scheduled for completion Dec. 31 but work by a roofing contractor has held up lathing and plastering.

Because the patrol operates on similar barracks elsewhere in the state. Cost of the structure will run between $50,000 and $65,000.

Traffic Deaths Exceed 40,000

Law Officials Turn To Tougher Measures

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Traffic accidents killed more Americans in 1956 than ever before—and law officials throughout the nation are turning to get-tough policies to cut down the highway slaughter.

There was at least a 5 per cent rise over 1955. Safety experts estimate the total at more than 40,000.

The 1955 figure was 38,426. The previous high — 39,969 — was recorded in 1941.

In states which had fewer traffic fatalities in 1956 than in 1955, credit generally is given to rigid enforcement of safety measures. In states where traffic deaths increased, similar crackdowns generally are planned.

A state-by-state survey by The Associated Press shows that these measures — already in effect in some states and planned in others — include:

1. Increasing the number of police patrols on highways. This has top priority in most states.
2. New laws—or harsher enforcement of existing laws—calling for suspension of licenses and—or fines and imprisonment for motorists convicted of drunk driving, "chronic" negligence and speeding.
3. Tighter examinations for vehicle licenses and mandatory auto inspection programs.
4. Use of National Guard troops of sheriff's deputies to reinforce regular highway police during peak travel periods, such as holiday weekends.
5. Periodic roadblocks — with massed troopers stopping all cars and checking on licenses, intoxication and vehicle condition.
6. Expansion of the use of radar devices in catching speeders.
7. Establishing state speed limits where they are not already in force.

The survey came on the heels of the Christmas and New Year weekends when 1,115 persons were killed in the combined holiday periods—a new high.

Safety experts attributed the comparatively low toll of 409 during the four-day New Year weekend to increased vigilance and enforcement measures resulting from the nation's reaction to the staggering Christmas weekend total of 706 traffic deaths. The Christmas traffic toll was a record for any holiday.

Tennessee and Michigan are examples of states which took strong measures to reduce highway fatalities in 1956—were succeeded.

Tennessee effected a 16 per cent decrease from the preceding year — from 906 to 758 — with strict enforcement policies. These included speedblocks, a concentration of radar-bearing squad cars in one area to check speeders, and roadblocks.

Gov. C. Mennen Williams, noting Michigan's decrease from 2,004 traffic deaths in 1955 to 1,725 in 1956, declared:

"The main weapons we have used are increased state police patrols; better control of driver licensing and suspension of licenses from dangerous drivers; use of National Guard troops to reinforce state police and sheriff's road patrols, and widespread publicity."

DRIVER FINED IN LISBON

LISBON — Delores J. Thomas, 30, of East Liverpool was fined $10 and costs Wednesday by Mayor Wilbur Warren on a state highway patrol charge of operating a motor vehicle at a speed excessive for road conditions. The costs were suspended.

Familiar Faces Surround Lausche In Washington

WASHINGTON (AP) — Familiar faces surround Frank J. Lausche of Ohio as he makes his transition today from governor to senator.

Five of his top aides from Columbus have joined his senatorial staff.

Ray M. White, Lausche's secretary for the last three years, has become the new senator's administrative assistant.

Phony Bomb Threats Still Harass Police

NEW YORK (AP) — Phony bomb threats continue to harass the police search for the "mad bomber" who has planted more than 30 live bombs in this area since 1940.

Wednesday more than 20 bomb threats were received. Four false bombs were found at a Manhattan movie theater, the American Museum of Natural History, the Brooklyn branch of the New York Public Library and a Brooklyn grocery.

School children, back for the first day since the holiday recess, also got involved.

The principals of three New York schools ordered 20-minute shelter drills as police searched the buildings futilely after telephoned bomb scares.

White, a weekly newspaper publisher and editor in Millersburg, Ohio, for 25 years, is a former member of the Ohio Legislature.

Joseph Scanlon of Cincinnati has also joined Lausche's staff here. He formerly was the governor's executive secretary and then became administrator of Ohio's Bureau of Workmen's Compensation.

Miss Marie A. King of Washington Court House, Ohio, is the senator's office manager and Miss Celie M. Jirsa is his personal secretary. They held these same positions at the state capitol.

Stanley Andrews, another Lausche aide from Columbus, will be his research assistant here.

Mrs. Lausche arrived in Washington Sunday night. The Lausches have leased a large apartment in a new building on fashionable Massachusetts Avenue.

The only other new member of Congress from Ohio is David S. Dennis Jr. of Warren, who succeeds Oliver P. Bolton as representative from the 11th District. Both Dennis and Bolton are Republicans so Ohioans in the House line up politically the same as in the last congress—17 Republicans and 6 Democrats.

Dennis, 38, and his wife, Margaret, have leased a home on Capitol Hill. They have two children, Jennie, 6, and Whitty, 5.

Mrs. Helen Wangness and Ralph Marlett, from Bolton's staff, are staying on with Dennis.

Says Boost In Price Of Stamps To Be Asked

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Republican lawmaker reported today that Postmaster General Summerfield is planning to ask Congress to raise the price of letter stamps to 5 cents. They now cost 3 cents.

The legislator asked that his name not be used. The Post Office Department declined to comment on the report.

Arab coins frequently are found in Scandinavia, apparently brought there to pay for furs, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

An Eisenhower Doctrine

The first presidential push on the new Congress will be for authority to get militarily tough in the Middle East if Russia makes an overt move.
Nine years ago next March, President Truman startled a joint session of Congress with a plan for blocking the Soviet Union's expansion into the Middle East.
That plan was to win worldwide acclaim as the "Truman doctrine."
It called for $400 million to help Greece and Turkey, maintain their freedom. Mr. Truman pointed out what everybody had known for a long time and had disregarded - that Greek and Turkish poverty was the ideal breeding ground for Communism.
"The seeds of totalitarian regimes are nurtured by misery and want," he said. "They spread and grow in the evil soil of poverty and strife. They reach their full growth when the hope of a people for a better life has died."
Despite the fact Mr. Truman asked for nothing but money, explaining carefully that no military means would be used, his critics leaped to the conclusion that World War III was about to begin.
Among these, however, the men in the Kremlin were not included. There was no war. Greece and Turkey got the benefit of U.S. generosity, poverty was relieved slightly, and for the last eight years no one has believed either country was a pushover for Communists.
The pushover zone now has moved eastward to the lands at the end of the Mediterranean, where poverty persists in spite of U.S. dollars paid out for oil and in various forms of government aid. Fear of a sudden Russian move to overrun these countries has caused President Eisenhower to recommend an "Eisenhower doctrine" - immediate military action if trouble starts.
Harry Truman would not have dreamed of going that far.
Dwight Eisenhower, we may be sure, would not dream of going that far unless he thought it was necessary. Whatever he has learned recently must have made him as apprehensive as the British and French were when they attacked Egypt to avert, as they described it, a Communist plot to take over the Middle East.
The British and French must wonder now if President Eisenhower expects to ask the United Nations in advance for authority to use U.S. military power.

Congress Can't Help It

There is something about Congress every citizen should know. The knowledge will be helpful while the 85th Congress grinds through its first session.
Congress comes close to being a cross-section of the United States. It is no better and no worse than the people it represents. Representative democracy becomes a fresh reality every time Congress convenes.
All the good and bad qualities are there. Congress has statesmen at the top, pipsqueaks at the bottom and the ordinary run of uninspired pluggers in between.
There are clowns and saints, men smart enough to make a success in anything they might try and men so stupid they would starve if they ever got off the public payroll.
Having entered the danger zone where "all power corrupts and absolute power corrupts absolutely," congressmen need to be watched for tell-tale signs of corruption—not merely money corruption, which is easy to spot, but mental corruption, which is hard to detect.
They begin to think like politicians, in short. They grow obsessed with the art of politics, which is the art of managing people and getting around obstacles.
They learn to keep one ear to the ground, while pretending to keep their gaze on the horizon—and the pose is so absurd it causes their constituents to split their seams with laughter.
This is why every citizen should know the one thing about Congress that is the key to all the ridiculous things it does along with its noble and occasionally exalted acts.
It is the fact that Congress, being a fair cross-section of the people it legislates for, reflects what the people themselves would do in similar circumstances—if they were Congressmen.
They, too, would be a weird mixture of good, bad, dignity, absurdity, honesty and corruption. They never grow tired of pointing out where Congress is weak, but it is no weaker than they are. If it were stronger, it would not be representative democracy but some form of political aristocracy hateful to Americans.
The next time the impulse to cuss out Congress makes itself felt, think twice before cussing out yourself and the sovereign people of the United States.

"Night Club Racket Investigated"—headline. Sounds like ol' rock 'n' roll.
It's okay to have your own opinions if you just remember that they are merely opinions.

War Not Ruled Out

By DAVID LAWRENCE
Leaders Act To Correct Misconception

An erroneous impression that the United States would not fight under any circumstances has been derived in recent months from the frequent use by public officials of the phrase "renunciation of the use of force." It has resulted in some criticism that Soviet Russia and her allies may have been led to assume that this country had adopted a peace-at-any-price attitude.
There never was, however, any idea of renouncing the use of force for defensive purposes—as a means of resisting the attacks of the aggressor.
So widespread has the misconception of American policy become in certain quarters that Vice President Nixon last month found it necessary to insert in a public speech a qualifying word when he declared that all nations must renounce the use of "aggressive force."
This was a timely clarification and by coincidence the latest declaration of Pope Pius XII confirms this very point and adds weight to the request just being made by President Eisenhower to Congress to give the executive authority to use the armed forces in certain contingencies in the Middle East.
IT HAS OFTEN been inferred, because of their emphasis on moral force, that churchmen generally were on the pacifist side and did not favor the use of military force under any circumstances.
It is a coincidence, too, that in the Dec. 24 issue of "Christianity and Crisis," Reinhold Niebuhr, chairman of its editorial board and one of the prominent Protestant churchmen of the country, who has been identified with many "liberal" causes, took occasion to criticize the note of pacifism which has been creeping into international affairs.
The Pope's speech on Dec. 23, which was perhaps the most important utterance on this subject from any church source in the year 1956, deals first with the situation that can arise in any nation "wherein, every effort to avoid war being expended in vain, war—for effective self-defense and with the hope of a favorable outcome against unjust attack—could not be considered unlawful." He then added:
"If, therefore, a body representative of the people and a government—both having been chosen by free elections—in a moment of extreme danger decide, by legitimate instruments of internal and external policy, on defensive precautions and carry out the plans which they consider necessary, they do not act immorally."
THE POPE touched directly on the importance of strengthening the United Nations as an instrument for keeping the peace of the world. He declared:
"This organization ought, also, to have the right and the power of forestalling all military intervention of one state in another, whatever the pretext under which it is effected and also the right and power of assuming, by means of a sufficient police force, the safeguarding of order in the state which is threatened."
Reinhold Niebuhr's article stressed the point that the United Nations must have military force behind it. He said:
"We speak bravely of strengthening the United Nations and of acting through the United Nations. But without a united Western leadership the United Nations is threatened with the fate of the old League of Nations. . . . Perhaps this impotence is due to the American doctrine that force is ruled out in any and all circumstances. This allows the Communists to have their way merely by threatening force."
WHAT PRESIDENT Eisenhower is doing to offset these wrong impressions was really forecast by Vice President Nixon on his speech in New York City on Dec. 6 last, which takes on added significance now. Mr. Nixon said in part:
"We are militarily strong only because we know this is necessary to keep the peace today. While we oppose the use of force to settle disputes, we recognize the need of strong forces of self-defense so long as the Communist world is committed to its policies of world domination by force and violence."
"Now that our allies have subordinated what they consider to be their national interests to the verdict of the United Nations, we have a solemn obligation to give leadership and support to a United Nations program which will assure the solution by peaceful means of the problems which brought about the armed conflict in that area."
"If aggressive force is to be outlawed as an instrument of national policy, other ways must be found to protect the legitimate interests of nations when they are threatened by means short of force."
"IN ADDITION to the immediate problem of expediting the reopening of the Suez Canal on a basis under which this international life line will not be subject to arbitrary closing in the future, the moral, diplomatic, economic and military strength of the United States and the United Nations must be mobilized toward the realization of these long-range objectives in the Near East."
This is indeed the policy underlying the President's request to Congress to give him authority to use, if necessary, the armed services of this country in the Middle East, in cooperation with the United Nations, in order to prevent the outbreak of a general war.

Could Be a Path of Glory

Businessmen Eye Congress

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP) — Businessmen will have considerable stake in the new Congress starting work today — everything from atomic energy to tight money and from taxes to tariffs.
Plenty of fights are brewing already over such disputed issues as foreign aid and legislation on mergers — matters of first importance to many industries.
Some of the battles will be over matters left unsettled by the old Congress. Some will be heightened by the events this fall in the Middle East and Eastern Europe.
In most of the perennial questions business looks for the final decisions to be along the lines laid out in the last Congress, since there is little change in makeup — a Republican administration working with a fairly conservative coalition in the Congress.
Hopes for tax cuts for business seem dim as Congress convenes. The 52 per cent tax on corporate income is due to drop to 47 per cent April 1. Increases in excise tax rates voted during the Korean War are also due to expire on that day. But in both cases the chances now seem to be all for another renewal.
Federal aid in harnessing the atom for industrial use is expected to be hotly debated. So is a measure that would make it necessary for parties to a proposed merger to notify the government of their intentions first.
Tight money policies will be assailed from several angles probably. Contractor scan be expected to urge Congress to make easier credit available to home builders. Champions of small business say they will ask a return to cheaper money.
Even the basic issue — whether the Federal Reserve Board should be brought under control or guidance of the administration or Congress — may come up on Capitol Hill.
The debate on foreign aid will take a new turn, thanks to the Suez Canal blocking and the request of Western European countries for help, particularly in getting oil.
At the same time, a number of industries that feel they are being hurt or threatened by foreign competition will seek new or more protection.
That old standby, a curb on oil imports, is likely to be heard from again, in spite of the change brought about by the exporting of American oil to Western Europe.

Chances Are Good

By BRUCE BLOSSAT
One of the sensitive points of our economy is the area of new business growth. And he figures indicate that American enterprise is pretty healthy on this score.
In other words, a man starting out on his own has a pretty respectable prospect of succeeding, or if not that, at least getting out of the venture without losing his shirt.
According to the experts, less than one per cent of new businesses end in bankruptcy in any typical year.
That doesn't mean, however, that 99 per cent or more succeed. Some 53 per cent of new enterprises have to be sold or liquidated to prevent loss to their founders. Nevertheless, the ratio of successes seems high enough to justify saying that opportunity still knocks in the U.S. economy.
Evidently there's nothing in the laws of nature or business that says there can't be even more successes. The ratio might go sharply upward if budding entrepreneurs could avoid some of the common pitfalls in their pathway.
Thomas P. Murphy, author of "A Business of Your Own," says the first of these is going into a business that duplicates an established venture. For example, a man may put up a fourth gas station at a crossroads where three already stand.
Another mistake is to develop a product or a service that is bound to be a losing affair even if its potential market is saturated. A typical case would be a man who opens a sporting goods store in a town of just 700 families. He couldn't possibly sell enough to earn a profit.
Very often, too, people plunge into business without enough money to tide them over the rough early days. They need to figure carefully the financial reserves required to bring their venture through this period.
Murphy's final "pitfall" is a very human one — incompetence. But, unhappily, it's one that a good many would-be entrepreneurs are not able to get around.
He suggests that if a man's proposed venture won't match his salary at his old job and won't bring him 10 to 20 per cent return on his investment, he should abandon the project forthwith.
Whether or not advice like this is taken, whether or not the ratio of successes mounts, we can be thankful that this country's growth through the addition of new businesses is as energetic as it is.

Debts Worry Uncle Sam

By JOHN F. SEMBOWER
ANN ARBOR, Mich. — The economist President Eisenhower has appointed to his three-man Council of Economic Advisers believes that the size of private debts in the nation is becoming a problem.
Prof. Paul W. McCracken of the University of Michigan warns that "In the decade ahead we must have either unbalanced federal budgets or unbalanced private budgets, with private debts rising substantially more rapidly than incomes and sales in the latter case. But between now and 1956 we cannot have both."
"In the immediate postwar period private debts were so low that a rise relative to incomes constituted no worrisome problem," he says.
He also maintains that "during much of our history private debt has been virtually equal to total debt, so the question never really arose. However, we are starting into the next decade with many persons already uncomfortable about the large volume of private debt."
Striking an optimistic note on the other hand, Dr. McCracken believes that an increase in America's total output of 565 billion dollars by 1965 — an increase of 40 to 50 per cent over the present — is "quite feasible."
Referring to what the economists now call "the gross national product," he states that this increase "would actually require an improvement in productivity only moderately better than in the pre-war decade."
He cites higher capital outlays, more research, technological development, and greater attention to "behavioral and motivational problems in the economy" as factors which should permit a growth rate substantially better than the pre-war decade, which included the great depression.
The size of the public and private debt, however, puts the nation in somewhat of a dilemma, according to the President's new advisor.
"Because the federal debt still is relatively quite large, private debts for several years must grow about 50 per cent more rapidly than incomes and sales if private debt is to account for the expansion of total debt," he maintains.
Dr. McCracken suggests one way out of the squeeze: "If a substantially larger proportion of our savings were to go into equities, such as capital improvements of one kind or another, the proportion going into assets which are the debts of others could be correspondingly reduced."
He feels that "measures which might facilitate such a shift would be all to the good," and he views the greater tendency of pension funds to go into equities and the substantial growth of investment companies as evidences that we are moving in this direction.

So They Say

If there is such a thing as civil rights, there are civil wrongs. It would be unthinkable and unbearably wrong to make white students get out of Dallas schools so as to let in colored students. — U.S. District Court Judge William H. Atwell refusing to desegregate Dallas, Tex., schools immediately.
I think India and America will get along very well in the future in international affairs. — Indian Prime Minister Nehru.
In such a situation, to give way to provocation, to resign oneself to violations of law, to accept the accomplished fact, was to expose oneself to new provocations, to new violations of the law and to new successes up to the moment when the general peace would be in peril. — French premier Guy Mollet, defending the Anglo-French attack on Egypt.

Oil Maps And Horse Players

The recent strangest of "whodunits" leading to arrests for thefts of Gulf Oil Company geophysical maps revealing probable or certain sources of fabulous oil strikes continues to hold interest.
Any one of these maps might be the key to vast riches, but just as we had begun to ransack our backyard to see if by any chance one had been discarded by frightened map thieves and blown on the premises, we read that the Gulf Oil people will sue anybody making use of such maps.
This ruined our day as we had assumed that if a fellow found such a map it would be "findings keepings" and he might wind up as an oil baron, with life one gusher after another.
BUT NOT ONLY the legal angle saddened us. Gulf Oil explained that even if we could use such a map, with a kindly judge's approval, there would be hard going, as it seems the maps show oil at varying depths.
It would take at least $100,000 to drill down to a medium depth. And these maps show most of the oil away down where the first drilling would take $1,000,000 in equipment, not including sandwiches, beer and headache powders.
WE ABANDONED the dream of a map being blown onto the premises when we heard that the oil company worker suspected of stealing the maps had lost money playing the races and that some of the men who bought the maps were also gamblers.
Folks who become horse track addicts get pretty screwy. They could get all balled up and confuse geophysical maps with racing charts.
A real horse - playing fanatic might accept such a map as geophysical and still fall for any story that it could be used to reveal areas where good long - shot winners could be dug up.
IT IS WELL-KNOWN fact among horse players that winners are found at varying depths and that it takes a lot of exploratory digging and drilling. Shudda Haddim, turf addict, was interviewed by us today. He has used everything in an effort to get winners and has probably used geophysical maps, too.
"Everything depends on depths and digging," he said. "You might hit some short price winners close to the surface but you have to go down farther for anything better than ten to one."
"It's pretty discouraging then?" we suggested.
"Yeah," said Shudda Haddim, "I once dug down a mile and a quarter and came up only with an eight - year - old nonwinner who had never been in the money."
BORIS KARLOFF, famed for "monster" parts on stage and screen, got to $16,000 on a big quiz show and decided to take the money instead of shooting for $32,000. This could be a case where Boris was frightened. Incidentally (and you'd scarcely guess it) his category was children's stories!
The Communist government of Hungary is reported about to ask the International Bank, and America, for a big loan to get it out of the hole. While it refuses to let in any "observers," as asked by the free world, it is willing, we take it, to welcome any representative with money.
RCA lost 7 million dollars during the year on color TV. The "red," as we have contended, comes through too predominantly.
Burlesque is back in New York after many years and should be a welcome detergent for anybody who has been to some of the legitimate shows and dirtier movies.
Alabama newspapers have established a dial-phone news service. . . . You just dial them and get a news summary. . . . Our idea of an ingrate is the fellow who will get the news this way and then borrow a neighbor's paper to read.

Warming Trend Moves To East

Southerly Winds Take Chill Off Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Southerly winds brought a warming trend to chilled midwest areas today and relief was in prospect for the northeast but icy air dipped into the southeast.

Temperatures tumbled below freezing in sections of Georgia, the Carolinas and northern Florida as the cold air moved southeastward from the northern midlands and northeast.

Readings in the southeast and along the Gulf Coast were 5 to 15 degrees lower than Wednesday morning.

The biggest advances in temperatures were reported in the northern and central plains and the upper Mississippi Valley. They were from 10 to 20 degrees higher than sub-zero marks of 24 hours earlier. Minneapolis reported 26 above compared to Wednesday's low of 4 below zero. Above freezing marks were indicated during the day, the first in several days in the areas.

Arctic air continued over most of the area from the Great Lakes eastward to the Atlantic Coast although warming was forecast during the day. The unseasonable cold was expected to continue in most of the southeast at least another day.

Clear skies prevailed in most areas east of the Mississippi River and mostly cloudy in other parts of the country. Snow flurries fell along the southern shore of Lake Ontario and in the northern Appalachians.

Area Roads Slippery

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The state highway department reported a few slippery spots on roads in the vicinity of Lisbon, but other highways were in normal condition despite the cold weather.

Engineers To Begin Repair of Dam Locks

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio — A work party of the U.S. Corps of Engineers will start repairs of the locks at Dam No. 9 in the Ohio River at nearby New Cumberland, W. Va., Feb. 8, Lockmaster C. O. Valentine announced today.

He said it would take three weeks to complete replacement of the worn out Upper Rolling lock gate. River traffic will be maintained while the gate is being replaced.

From New Cumberland, the work party of 40 men will go to Dam No. 10 at Steubenville for a repair project.

The February project will be the last major work on Dam No. 9, which will be replaced by a 51-million-dollar super dam under construction at Stratton, Ohio. The super dam, which is scheduled for completion early in 1958, also will replace Dams No. 7 at Midland, Pa., and No. 8 at nearby Newell, W. Va.

Cross Burned In Front Of Tallahassee Church

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP)—A four-foot cross was burned Wednesday night in front of the church served by the Rev. C. K. Steele, leader of the Negroes who are campaigning for integrated seating on Tallahassee's buses.

Steele was at a church on the other side of town at the time, presiding at a meeting of the Negro Inter-Civic Council, which has spearheaded the integration drive. Police were summoned by Mrs. Steele but were not in time to make any arrests.

It was the second incident directed at the Steeles, who live next door to the church, in as many days. The Steeles have five children. Rocks were thrown at their windows early Tuesday morning and four panes of glass were shattered.

Mrs. Steele and a neighbor knocked the cross over and threw water on it. It was wrapped with Spanish moss which police said had been soaked in kerosene.

'Not A Chance' Seen For General Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (AP)—Higher government costs and an anticipated record peacetime budget all but ruled out any general income tax reduction action in the Congress session opening today.

Although some pressures for individual income tax relief were expected, the consensus of key members of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee seemed to be: "Not a chance."

This, however, did not foreclose the possibility of some relief for certain groups of taxpayers.

Bipartisan support has developed in Congress during the recess for some revision of business excise (sales) tax laws and for tax aid to small business men.

The Treasury steadfastly has opposed tax reduction this year.

Paris Fashions Spark New Sears Catalogue

Sears, Roebuck & Co.'s spring and summer catalogue has gone fancy. Even Paris-inspired women's fashions are included.

L. M. Maneri, manager of Sears' Salem store, said the catalogue is being distributed this month. A new fashion section has been prepared under a newly-created Sears fashion board which participated in the most recent Paris showings.

Leading New York models have been used to portray the styles in the new book.

Mr. Maneri explained that this "new look" in the fashion section of the 1416-page catalogue represents a desire on the part of Sears to bring the high-styled fashions within everyone's reach.

5 Convicts Get Commutations

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Frank J. Lausche in one of his last official acts before becoming a U. S. senator today issued commutations to five penitentiary inmates serving terms for murder. The action makes them eligible for parole consideration. Commutations went to: Solly Hart, who has served 18½ years for the slaying of Roy Marino in Mahoning County. His second-degree murder conviction was reduced to manslaughter. John Lee Hicks, sentenced from Montgomery County for the first-degree murder of Joan Patterson. His sentence was reduced to second-degree murder effective Jan. 1, 1951. James Hicks, sentenced from Cuyahoga County for the first-degree murder of John Thorpe during a dice-game argument over a 35-cent bet. He entered the penitentiary in 1935. Judge Lee E. Skeel, who presided at Hicks' trial, recommended commutation of the sentence to second-degree murder. John Elmer Green, received from Hamilton County in 1947 for the second-degree murder of his wife. His sentence was reduced to manslaughter. Frank Stopar, received from Cuyahoga County in 1945 for the first-degree murder of Frances Erzen. The sentence was reduced to second-degree murder.

Church Holds Special Service For Leaders

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower and many other top government figures attended a special service held at the National Presbyterian Church for the new Congress convening today. Secretary of State Dulles, as one of the ruling elders of the church, served communion to the President, who is a member of the church. Ten senators and House members also helped serve communion as elders. Other legislators were in the congregation. The traditional service is held every two years to solicit divine guidance and blessing at the start of each new Congress.

Bus Segregation In Miami Overruled

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A federal judge today ruled that Florida laws and Miami city ordinances requiring segregated seating on municipal buses are unconstitutional. U. S. Dist. Judge Emmett Choate made the oral ruling in refusing to dismiss a petition by Florida branches of the National Assn. for Advancement of Colored People requesting an end to segregated bus seating. The judge refused to convene a three-judge court to hear arguments in the case. He said there was no substantial question of constitutional law in view of the recent U. S. Supreme Court decision banning segregated seating on buses in Montgomery, Ala.

Predict GOP Victory

Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex) was asked at a news conference about what a reporter said was a "flat statement" by one Democratic senator that the Republicans would organize the Senate. "I suggest you wait until noon," Johnson said. He would make no further comment. He had no contact with Lausche, he said.

Aside from this possibility that the GOP might attempt to seize Senate control, pre-session preliminaries went smoothly in the Senate.

Johnson was re-elected as his party's floor leader at what he described as "about the most harmonious conference I ever presided over."

Differences over civil rights and the prospect of a fight over changing the rules to weaken the filibuster weapon did not come up at the Democratic meeting at which Sen. Hayden of Arizona was nominated for president pro tempore, Johnson said.

Sen. Mansfield of Montana was nominated for the post of assistant floor leader or "whip."

Republicans also put on a show of harmony at their organization session.

Sen. Knowland was named to continue as GOP floor leader with Sen. Saltonstall of Massachusetts moving up from "whip" or assistant leader to become chairman of the conference of the 47 Republican senators. The conference chairmanship has been held by Sen. Millikin (R-Colo.), who did not seek re-election.

County Educators To Hear National Speaker On Feb. 4

LISBON — The executive committee of the Columbiana County Education Association will meet at 2 p.m. Monday at the Lepper Library to make plans for a banquet to be held Monday, Feb. 4, at Beaver Local High School.

Miss Martha Shull of Portland, Ore., national president will be the guest speaker.

An estimated 350 educators in northeastern part of Ohio will attend this meeting.

Thomas Leek of Salineville is president of the county association.

Woman, 5 Children Die In House Fire

READING, Pa. (AP) — A woman and five children burned to death today as flames roared through a one-story bungalow covered dwelling at Temple, Pa., five miles north of Reading.

The victims were identified as: Mrs. Esther Rothermel, 48, wife of Paul Rothermel in whose home the fire occurred.

Donna Rothermel, 4, and her brother, Eddie, 2, children of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Rothermel of near Fleetwood, Pa. The children's father is a brother of Paul Rothermel.

Jimmy Brobst, 1, and his sister, Peggy, 3, children of Mr. and Mrs. James Brobst of Kutztown, Pa. Brobst is a daughter of the older Rothermels.

Carol Ann Fromm, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Fromm of Reading, Pa. Fromm is a sister of Paul Rothermel.

Firemen said apparently the blaze was caused by a leaking coal oil stove in the living room of the house. All the children were in bed.

tor-elect from New York, announced he would not take his seat until next week.

With Lausche, the Democrats number 49 and the Republicans 47. Even if Lausche left party ranks to vote with the Republicans, as he once hinted he might, Javits' absence still would give the Democrats a 48-47 edge, assuming all other senators are present.

233 Democrats In House

In the House, 233 Democrats assured control for their party over the 200 Republicans. There was one vacancy in each party's elected ranks. The House leadership, topped by Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas, remained intact.

Northern and Western senators of both parties who want action in the new Congress on civil rights legislation were prepared to propose that the Senate adopt new rules. Their target was a rule requiring 64 affirmative votes to end debate. By making it difficult to halt filibusters, the rule has permitted a Southern minority to avoid votes on civil right legislation.

Civil rights advocates generally conceded defeat in advance of any showdown. They said they were willing to postpone any vote on the issue until next week to clear the way for routine organization.

The veteran Sen. Carl Hayden (D-Ariz) was in line for election as Senate president pro-temp, relinquished by Sen. George (D-Gal), who is leaving the senate.

House Republicans voted late Wednesday to retain Rep. Martin of Massachusetts as their leader and picked Rep. Hoeven of Iowa to succeed retiring Rep. Hope of Kansas as chairman of their party conference.

With its routine out of the way, Congress could turn its attention first to Eisenhower's troop authority proposal and then later to a series of legislative recommendations he will lay down in a Jan. 10 State of the Union message.

With Congress closely divided between the parties, Eisenhower apparently was moving to enlist as much Democratic support for his proposals as possible.

His agreement to submit the proposed Middle East resolution to top members of both houses for suggestions on its final form was interpreted as only the first step in this campaign. Secretary of State Dulles carried the proposal to Capitol Hill for discussion with the congressional leaders Thursday.

While he could expect a large measure of Democratic cooperation on international problems, it was evident Eisenhower will face difficulties on many of his domestic recommendations.

Southern Democrats were lining up to fight his civil rights proposals.

The President's expected request for $4,400,000,000 foreign aid funds already was being brought under fire.

An expected 38½ billion dollar defense budget was criticized by some Democrats as too small.

Canfield Girl, 13, Is Struck By Car

A Canfield girl was one of two persons injured Wednesday in a pair of auto accidents that occurred on area highways.

The girl, Joann Miller, 13, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Moore, was struck by a car driven by Donald Powell, 21, of Youngstown at 3:50 p.m. on Rt. 46, two miles south of Austintown. The girl is in fair condition in Youngstown's South Side Hospital with a fractured skull, and multiple abrasions of the face and legs.

State highway patrolmen said the girl stepped into the path of Powell's car from behind a parked truck. Powell was not held.

Robert Lyle, 37, of Youngstown, was treated at that city's South Side Hospital for a neck injury received when the car she was driving was struck in the rear by an auto operated by Max Houlette, 31, of Leetonia, on Rt. 7, one mile south of Youngstown, at 6 p.m. Houlette was arrested for failing to stop in the assured clear distance ahead.

Intruders Enter Hawkins Feed Mill

Thieves broke into a soda pop machine, snatched a case of oil and stole some wrenches sometime last night after gaining entrance through a window into the Hawkins Feed Mill, one mile south of Berlin Center.

Richard Hawkins, owner of the mill, who discovered the illegal entry at 7 a.m. today, said drawers in the office were left open by the offenders, but nothing was taken. The intruders apparently did not tamper with the safe, he said.

A feed mill employee had given the mill a nightly check at 11:30 last night, Hawkins said. The owner has notified the Mahoning County sheriff's office of the incident.

Rainfall In '56 8½ Inches Over Average

Area farmers toiled through their most difficult harvest last season as a result of the water-logged soil which destroyed many of their crops, Edwin Copeland of Millport, area weather observer, declared in his annual report today.

The overall rainfall during 1956 was 45.69 inches, 8½ inches above the normal of 37. Rain fell during 115 days in 1956, compared to 100 in 1955.

February and May were the wettest on record for the 64-year period on which Copeland bases his observations. In May, 8 inches of rain fell and in February 5.18 inches were recorded. The driest month was November, when only 1.05 inches of rain fell.

Heavy rains in July greatly retarded the harvest of crops in the area.

The most sweltering day of the year was July 2 when the thermometer rose to 93 degrees. The coldest day was Jan. 23 when the temperature fell to -2 degrees.

Nine inches of snow fell during December, much more than the 5.7 average. Three inches of snow fell in December, 1955. Seven degrees was the lowest temperature recorded last month, on the 30th.

The highest temperature, 67 degrees, was recorded last month on the 6th. Average temperature during the month was 37.7 degrees as compared to 29 degrees in 1955 and the 63-year average of 29.5 degrees.

Rainfall during the month was somewhat above normal during December, 1955, falling at 3.02 inches. The 1955 rainfall during December was 2.63 inches, and the 63-year average was 2.54 inches.

The sun shone 30 per cent of the month of December which is normal for the average.

derous campaign' the world's indignant reaction to Soviet armed actions against the people of Hungary."

On both the disarmament and Hungarian matters, Eisenhower challenged the Russians to work through the United Nations.

He told Bulgarians that in his belief "deliberations within the framework of the United Nations seem most likely to produce a step forward in the highly complicated matter of disarmament." In this connection, Eisenhower said the United States "will make further proposals" on the subject at the U.N. He did not say what those proposals would be.

Eisenhower did not foreclose a possible big power conference on disarmament at some future date, saying: "I could agree to a meeting whenever circumstances would make it seem likely to accomplish a significant result."

The move from Salem was approved a year ago in order to give the patrol a more central site for its operations in Columbiana County. When the patrol post was first established in Salem 23 years ago, the officers had to cover Mahoning County and parts of Portage, Stark and Carroll in addition to Columbiana.

In addition to Cpl. Miller, the post includes 10 patrolmen and a civilian desk man.

Salem Faces Once-Beaten New Philadelphia Friday Night

Visitors To Be Tough Quintet

New Philadelphia Averaging 78.5 Points

New Philadelphia's once-beaten Quakers will attempt to halt Salem's winning streak at four straight Friday night when they play the local quintet at the Salem High School gymnasium.

Last season, with the circumstances much the same as this year, the New Philadelphia team ended a similar four-game Salem streak.

But Salem has no intentions of losing this year to the strong club from New Philadelphia and the local Quakers are going all out to start the new year with victory No. 5.

Starting for the visitors at center will be John Gray, six foot one inch, 175 pound senior. At the forward positions are Bill Cooper, six foot one inch, 195 pound senior, and Bill Riss, six foot one inch, 165 pound junior.

Any two of these three guards could start: Richard Harris, five foot eleven inch, 150 pound junior; Jim Rolli, five foot eleven inch, 170 pound junior; or Jim Watson, five foot seven inch, 125 pound junior.

Coach John Cabas said that John Stephenson would start at one of the guard slots, and Mark Fenton and Ted Jackson would start at the forwards.

He said that either John Sturgeon or Bill Pauline would start at the center post, and that Dick Beall or Bill Schuster would get the nod at the other guard slot.

New Philadelphia's season record includes victories over Cambridge, 80-55, Ulrichville, 109-51, Newcomerstown, 74-46, Ashland, 65-81, and Bellaire, 88-70. Their lone defeat was inflicted by Canton South, 56-39.

Salem, in winning all their tilts thus far, has beaten Struthers, 49-37, Columbiana, 42-38, East Palestine, 72-64, and Akron Garfield, 57-52.

New Philadelphia has scored 471 points in their six games played for a 78.5 average per game, and they have allowed 343 points scored against them for a 57.1 average per game.

In four games played thus far Salem has attempted 247 field goals, sinking 82 of them for 164 points, and a 33.1 shooting percentage. They have also hit on 54 of 93 free throw attempts for a high 58 per cent.

This will mark the third straight year these two teams have met. Salem won the first encounter 103-65, and last season's score was 81-60, New Philadelphia winning.

Game time is listed for 7:30 for the reserve game. The reserves are also riding a four game winning streak this season.

3 Top U. S. Jockeys Win 2 Million Dollars

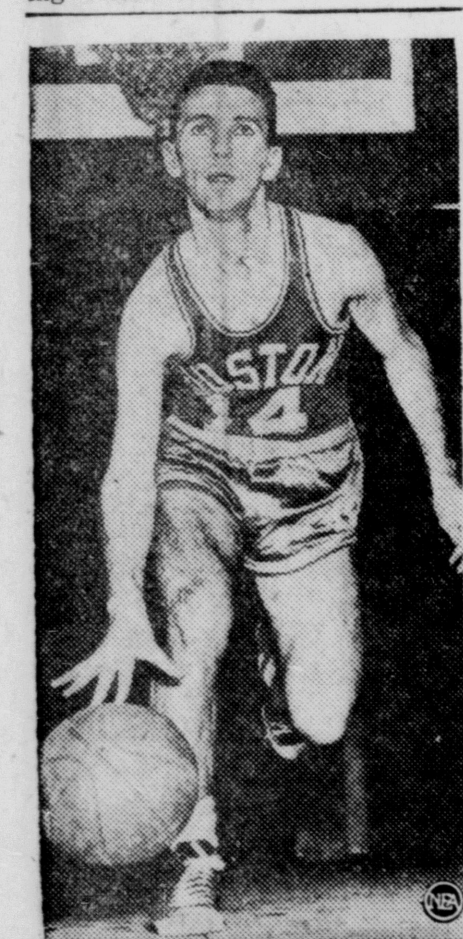

ARCADIA, Calif. (AP)—Three of the nation's top jockeys, Eddie Arcaro, Willie Shoemaker and Bill Hartack, rode horses that won more than two million dollars in 1956. The jockey's cut of 10 per cent indicates that this trio will pay healthy income taxes.

But they are the exception. There are 77 jockeys registered at Santa Anita but only 17 have been winners and by the time the winter meeting ends in March that number won't be increased appreciably. There were only 21 jockeys with winners at last year's Santa Anita meeting.

FIGHT RESULT

By The Associated Press
New York (Madison Square Garden)—Gene Fullmer, 157½, West Jordan, Utah, outpointed Sugar Ray Robinson, 160, New York, 15, (for world middleweight championship).

Bill Bell, Syracuse backfield coach, was an air force pilot during World War II.

MAGICIAN—Professional opponents and teammates attest that no one handles a basketball quite like Bob Cousy of the Boston Celtics.

Konnerth's, Quaker City Turkey, Salem Tool, Gasco Win City League Basketball Games

Russell Blamed With Illegal Cage Tactics

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eddie Gottlieb, owner of the Philadelphia Warriors, concedes that rookie Bill Russell can do some wonderful things on a basketball court, but says part of the success of the Boston Celtics' center is due to illegal maneuvers.

Gottlieb's charge Wednesday was immediately termed "sour grapes" by Celtics' coach Red Auerbach. And the league's supervisor of officials said he didn't see anything wrong in Russell's play.

Gottlieb, whose defending champion Warriors trail the Celtics in the National Basketball Association's eastern division and have had a rough time with Russell in recent games, says towering Bill tries to play a one-man zone and that he "goal tends" at times.

The Warriors chief said he planned an official protest on at least one play in Tuesday's night game with the Celtics in Syracuse.

"Our Paul Arizin went underneath for a simple backboard lay-up and as the ball headed down toward the basket, Russell batted it away. If this isn't goal tending, I want somebody to tell me what it is."

Goal tending applies to the maneuver—outlawed in basketball—of deflecting a ball after it begins its downward curve on a shot. Gottlieb contends that the 6-foot-10 Russell tries to play a zone by standing under the basket and waiting to "try and bat shots out."

The zone defense, too, has been outlawed in the NBA to keep the game going at a fast pace.

Auerbach said Russell, who paced San Francisco to two national collegiate championships and recently returned from a successful tour with the U.S. Olympic team, "has far exceeded everybody's expectation. None of his blocks of shots has been on the downward flight. He has marvelous timing. He catches the ball on the upward flight."

Jocko Collins, the NBA supervisor of officials, said he had received no official complaint. He said he had seen Russell play and "as far as I'm concerned Russell is playing legitimate."

Pettit Takes Wide Lead In Scoring

NEW YORK (AP)—The spectacular week's spree by Bob Pettit of the St. Louis Hawks has boosted the former LSU All-America well ahead of his closest contenders for the National Basketball Assn. scoring crown.

The 6-9 Pettit scored 134 points in four games in competition through Jan. 1 to increase his season's total to 806 and his game average to 26.9.

Both Paul Arizin and Neil Johnston, steady scoring leaders of the Philadelphia Warriors, lost ground although they performed at their accustomed pace.

Arizin, although having played one more game than Pettit, now trails the St. Louis ace by 39 points while Johnston is 59 back.

A new name—to pro basketball only—turned up in the weekly accounting with the disclosure that Boston's Bill Russell, in addition to blocking countless opposing field goal attempts, dragged down an amazing total of 112 rebounds in four games with the Celtics.

Exterminator raced 100 times during eight seasons and lived to be 30 years old.

Harvard To Seek New Grid Coach

CAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP)—Only an official announcement that Lloyd Jordan is fired appeared lacking today before Harvard hangs out a "help wanted" sign for the 22nd coach in its 82-year football history.

Jordan said Wednesday night that the Faculty Committee on Athletic Sports has asked the Harvard Corporation to "replace" him and buy up his contract which has two years to run.

Jordan said athletic director Thomas D. Bolles told him Monday that "poor teaching" was given by the committee as its reasons for the dismissal vote.

"I asked him, 'you mean we didn't win enough games?' and he replied 'something like that'," the 56-year-old coach said.

His Harvard teams have had little success on the gridiron, winning 24 games, losing 31 and playing 3 ties. The 1956 team won two and lost six.

SMU Whips Baylor For 17th In Row

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Time was when the Southwest Conference was upset-prone in basketball. But Southern Methodist apparently has changed all that.

The Mustangs, beaten only by Kentucky this season, opened defense of their conference crown by nailing their 17th consecutive league victory with an easy 79-64 decision over Baylor Wednesday night.

Baylor tried a zone against the Mustangs, ranked fourth in the Associated Press poll of their 11-1 record, but SMU simply shot over it.

It was a relatively light night on the college scene, with Vanderbilt the only other member of the top 10 in action. The ninth-rated Commodores cracked William and Mary 80-65 with Joe Gibbs canning 21 points.

Houston junked Drake's hopes for a winning "debut" in the Missouri Valley Conference as Andy McElveen whipped in a layup and a foul shot in the final 39 seconds for a 74-72 victory.

Alabama's little Jack Kubiszyn hit 17 of 32 field attempts for a school record of 47 points in an 86-53 job on Mississippi Southern. And Auburn, another Southeast Conference entry, surged past 100 points for the first time in history with a 101-70 decision over little Howard (Ala.).

Canisius led virtually all the way in an 80-70 victory over Detroit.

Science Was Right, Fullmer Could Win

NEW YORK (AP)—Science was right. The speed and power of the punching of Gene Fullmer and Sugar Ray Robinson were tested electronically Dec. 18-19. Last Friday Stephen D. Lavoie, president of the Lavoie Laboratories which conducted the tests, predicted without any "ifs" or "buts."

"Electronically, Gene Fullmer will be the new middleweight champion of the world."

The tests demonstrated that, overall, Fullmer punched with greater speed and with more force than Robinson. At the time Sugar Ray laughed it off with:

"Fullmer wins the machine, but how about the fight?"

Now he knows.

N. Waterford Varsity Drops Alumni 71-32

A 27-point barrage in the second quarter powered the New Waterford varsity past their alumni 71-32 last night at New Waterford.

The score was tied at the first period mark 10-10 but the 1956-57 edition of the Trojans cut loose in the next stanza to put them ahead at the intermission 37-13.

In the second half the younger team kept up its pace and stretched its lead to 49-24 with 8 minutes left, and then poured in 22 points in the final frame while limiting the older opponents to but 8 markers.

Ten members of the New Waterford alumni entered the scoring column, but the best single effort was by Earl Bacon who collected eight points. Jack Huffman scored six for the losers.

Ron Seachrist paced the Trojan varsity with 23 markers.

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Senior Bowl coaches, blessed with a wealth of material but cursed with a dearth of time, today began their tasks of developing offensive machines for Saturday's game.

Only two days are left to prepare for the eighth annual contest.

North coach Joe Kuharich of the Washington Redskins and the South's Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns got their first good look at the squads Wednesday observed individual capabilities, and then tried out various backfield combinations.

Although Brown didn't get to see

Kuharich watched quarterback Len Dawson of Purdue connect repeatedly with ends Brad Bomba of Indiana and Steven Junker of Xavier (Ohio) with his passes.

Also in the No. 1 North backfield were Art Luppino of Arizona at left half and 223-pound John Bayuk of Colorado at fullback.

Terry Barr of Michigan and Jim Podoiey of Central Michigan alternated at the other half.

The 50 players turn pro in the game. Members of the winning team will receive $500 each, the losers $400.

Senior Bowl Teams Have Lots Of Stars, But Little Time

By HOYT HARWELL

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Senior Bowl coaches, blessed with a wealth of material but cursed with a dearth of time, today began their tasks of developing offensive machines for Saturday's game.

Only two days are left to prepare for the eighth annual contest.

North coach Joe Kuharich of the Washington Redskins and the South's Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns got their first good look at the squads Wednesday observed individual capabilities, and then tried out various backfield combinations.

Although Brown didn't get to see

Kuharich watched quarterback Len Dawson of Purdue connect repeatedly with ends Brad Bomba of Indiana and Steven Junker of Xavier (Ohio) with his passes.

Also in the No. 1 North backfield were Art Luppino of Arizona at left half and 223-pound John Bayuk of Colorado at fullback.

Terry Barr of Michigan and Jim Podoiey of Central Michigan alternated at the other half.

The 50 players turn pro in the game. Members of the winning team will receive $500 each, the losers $400.

Fullmer Decisions Robinson For Middleweight Crown

Says He'll Be 'Twice As Mean' If They Meet For Title Again

By MURRAY ROSE

NEW YORK (AP)—Gene Fullmer, freshly crowned middleweight champion, warned Sugar Ray Robinson today that he'll be "twice as mean" and gunning for a knockout the next time he fights the dethroned king.

"I fought for nothing this time," said the unmarked, 25-year-old Mormon from West Jordan, Utah. "The next fight — if Robinson wants it — I'll be out there for the big money and to keep the title. I'll be twice as mean and I'll be out for a knockout. I wanted to go for the kyo in this one but Marv (manager Marv Jensen) said I had the title wrapped up in the late rounds and not to open up."

Whether there will be a return fight—and the chances are strong that there will be one—will be decided this afternoon when the dejected 36-year-old Sugar Man meets with his brain trust to decide his fistic future.

The fading Robinson, making the second defense of his third reign as middleweight champion, lost on a unanimous decision in 15 rounds. He was floored for six in the seventh round, cut and soundly whacked to the body throughout. Ray was gashed over the left eye in the seventh and it was widened in the 14th.

Referee Ruby Goldstein, a target of heated criticism by Robinson's advisers, voted for Fullmer by 8 rounds to 5 with 2 even. Judge Frank Forbes had Gene ahead 10-5, while Judge Harold Barnes had it a shade closer, 9-6. The Associated Press card had Fullmer in front 9-6.

Fullmer, a thick-necked, brawny mine worker with a zest for fighting, got off to a fast start in the first three rounds, swept the sixth, seventh, eighth and tenth rounds, and clinched the first boxing title for Utah with a rousing surge in the 13th and 14th rounds.

Robinson, hurt five times himself, shook Gene at least three times but couldn't follow up as he did in the past when he seemed to sense when he had an opponent in trouble. Maybe the spirit was willing, but the flesh was weak and the reflexes have slowed.

"I never did catch him solid," said Robinson. "I hit him several good shots to the body but never a real good one to the head."

Robinson who collected a fat purse of $139,050 to Fullmer's $20,802, has a contract calling for a return bout within 90 days at 30-30 split if he wants it. How did he feel about continuing in the ring?

"Boxing is my business," he replied, leaving no doubt that he wants another crack at Fullmer. "If he wants it, the fight is his," said both Fullmer and his manager Marv Jensen.

Fullmer, a look alike for baseball's Yogi Berra, was born to be a fighter. He was named after former heavyweight champion Gene Tunney and started boxing exhibitions when he was eight years old. A veteran of the Korean War, he says "I like to fight."

He showed Robinson, the roaring Garden fans, and television viewers across the nation, plenty of fight.

The ex-GI pressed the action almost all the way, lunging in for one series of body smashes after another — body blasts that weakened the onetime dazler of the ring and dropped him on the apron of the ring in the seventh round for the six-count. A right to the body and a followup left did it, said Gene, but Robinson claimed "it was a push and no knockdown."

Gene Fullmer Says He Never Really Opened Up; Robinson Keeps Quiet

By ED CORRIGAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Gene Fullmer woke up today in a new world — a world that could lead to fame and riches.

In fact, now that he's the middleweight champion of the world, he has a measure of fame. Riches still have to come.

The muscular West Jordan Utah, apprentice welder was so eager to get a shot at the title that he took a cut of only 12 1/2 per cent of the gate — about $20,800 — Wednesday night when he lifted the crown from Sugar Ray Robinson in a bruising 15-rounder.

"But I don't care," he said. "I just wanted to fight for the title. It was up to me to prove that I could win it once I got my chance. It was worth it."

That it was. Sitting in his dressing room as calm as though he had just finished a stroll up Times Square, Fullmer revealed that:

1. Robinson got in few punches.
2. He never really opened up.
- "I know it must have looked as though Ray were getting in plenty of punches. But, honest, I was taking at least 95 per cent of them on the gloves and arms. He did throw a lot of punches and the few that got in were hard. But he never hurt me."

Except for some drippings of Sugar Ray's blood — the result of a deep gash over the left eye — Fullmer was unmarked.

"I never really opened up," he continued thoughtfully, "and you can blame that on my manager, Marv Jensen. In fact, I played it real careful with Ray — I'd have to be pretty dumb not to — and that's why I couldn't truthfully say he's the hardest puncher I ever faced. I didn't give him enough opportunity to hit me."

Summing up his success, Fullmer said: "I got in some blows to the head, but I think my body punching was most effective. When I knocked Ray down in the seventh, it was from a right to the body. I also was lucky in that my defenses were working well."

As for Robinson, the ex-champion refused to alibi, and said he'd decide today if he would continue fighting. He did let out a hint when he observed:

"After all, fighting is my business."

Robinson's only trace of bitterness showed through his smiles when he added as an afterthought to the question of what he thought of the decision: "I thought rabbit punching was against the rules."

A rabbit punch is a belt in the back of the neck. Robinson apparently thought Fullmer got in some during their frequent clinches.

"But understand," he continued, "I have no gripes against Ruby Goldstein (the referee), Fullmer or anybody. He never hurt me, but he won according to the officials."

While Ray contained his complaints, his braintrust voiced loud and long disapproval of Fullmer's strategy — the rabbit punches, holding, etc., etc. But they fell on deaf ears. Fullmer had it and the Sugar Man didn't.

Salem Man's Firm Casts Huge Girder

Florida's largest prestressed concrete girder, which looks like an atomic cannon and weighs 71 bulky tons, is wending its way through Florida en route from Prestressed Concrete Inc. of Lakeland, Fla., a business owned by Floyd Funnell, a former Salem man.

Funnell's 101-foot girder has attracted the attention of Florida residents since it began its trip from Funnell's plant to the American Cyanamid Co. at Brewster, Fla., the company for whom it was constructed.

To cast the girder, steel strands were stretched between two giant jacks over a 422-foot long casting bed at 18,900 pounds of pressure per strand. Concrete was poured over the steel in the girder shape, bonding itself to the strands.

Two self-propelled rigs were employed to move the girder. When the girder arrives at the Cyanamid plant, 20 more tons of concrete will be poured on it. The girder will be used to build a huge super-phosphate storage building.

Funnell, son of G. P. Funnell of 1263 N. Ellsworth Ave., worked in Lakeland for three years prior to beginning operation of his firm in February. A 1950 civil engineering graduate of Ohio University in Athens, he was for a time employed by the Deming Co. here. His father is a retired Eljer Co. employee.

A former Bliss Co. man, Roy Hill is associated with Funnell's firm.

The elder Funnell has another son, Lee, a graduate of Ohio University, contractor; and a daughter, Mrs. Opal Poling, a teacher at Chauncey near Athens, O.

Man Deals Himself Into Game, Wins On A Bluff

FLINT, Mich. (AP)—Police today sought a man who dealt himself in on a pot at the Flint Pinocle Club and won it on a bluff.

He walked into the club and announced he intended to rob the place.

John Morgan, a club employee, told the man he couldn't get away with it because he didn't have a gun.

Calling his empty hand failed to ruffle the stranger. He walked to the cash register, scooped up $60 and left.

Slashed Cables Cut Portsmouth Police Communications

2 Hospitals Have No Phones; No End In Sight To Long Strike

PORTSMOUTH, Ohio (AP) — A two-day strike of telephone service Wednesday night, the Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. said.

What's on the calendar for 1957? If our wishing can make it so, every page will be filled with happiness for you. And we pledge to do our part to make it a good year for you, by serving you better than ever in 1957.

HOLLOWAY'S
COLUMBIANA, OHIO

A company spokesman termed the cuttings "an apparently well thought out plan to disrupt all service."

He said all the cuttings discovered thus far happened between 10:30 and 11:40 p. m.

At 10:30, he said, a disruption was noted, but company crews were unable to locate the trouble. At 10:35, a cut cable was discovered in front of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co. building on Cole Boulevard. It did not affect the A.T. and T. lines, he said.

A sliced trunk cable connecting Portsmouth and Lucasville to the north was discovered at 10:40. All telephone service between the two towns was disrupted, the spokesman said.

At that point, the spokesman said, Ohio Consolidated tried to reach the state highway patrol, but was unable to do so. The company then called Scioto County sheriff's office. Officers there said they would investigate the matter, the spokesman said.

At 10:45 the company discovered the lines to the state highway patrol had been cut. Later, the spokesman said, the company was told the cable connecting the highway patrol office with its radio station had been out, making impossible any communication with the patrol's radio cars.

A 100-pair cable was found cut at 10:58 at the rear of 178 Eighth St., the company spokesman said. The company then called the Portsmouth police station where officers reported the radio cable had been cut, making it impossible for local police to contact their cruisers.

Police were sent to the Ohio Consolidated's office building to stand by in the event any violence broke out.

Another cable disruption that company crews were unable to locate was run down about 11 p. m., the company representative said.

One more cut cable was located between 17th Street and Kinney's Lane at 11:05 p. m., the spokesman said, and another at 11:40 p. m. between Gay and Finley streets.

In addition to those, he said, cut cables blacked out telephone service at Mercy Hospital and the Smith-Everett Hospital.

The Portsmouth General Hospital was the only hospital remaining with telephone service, he said. It was impossible to estimate the number of residences left without service, he said, but he added it would be "a minimum of 500."

Similar incidents occurred Dec. 22, when the company said it located four cut cables, and again on New Year's Eve when three cut cables were reported.

Police said they were searching for the persons responsible, but that no one had been caught.

Portsmouth has had emergency telephone service since Dec. 16. Until that time, it had been totally blacked out since Oct. 15, when Ohio Consolidated closed its exchanges after a number of stone-throwing and cable-cutting incidents.

The Communications Workers of America (CWA) have been on strike against Ohio Consolidated since July 15 when a one-year contract expired. The CWA has denied any responsibility for the violence.

The CWA will appear before the National Labor Relations Board Jan. 7 for a hearing on 26 charges of violence in the strike against Ohio Consolidated.

The next day, Jan. 8, CWA and Ohio Consolidated representatives are scheduled to meet with federal mediators in Columbus to resume contract negotiations.

Renewal of a union shop clause and classification of supervisory personnel are considered to be the chief stumbling blocks to settlement.

Seek To Dismiss Suit Against Brig. General

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Federal Judge Ben H. Rice Wednesday ordered written arguments presented within 20 days on a defense motion to dismiss two suits by a former Air Force lieutenant against the commander of Randolph Air Force Base.

William Recht Jr. of Woodmere, Long Island, N. Y., filed the suits last August when he was a legal officer in the judge advocate's office at Randolph.

The first suit asked repayment of $250,000 allegedly collected illegally by "agents" of Brig. Gen. John W. Persons from about 1,000 residents of bachelor officers' quarters from 1950 to 1956 for porter and maid service.

The other suit requests $10,000 damages for Recht for "false imprisonment" in an Air Force psychiatric ward for observation after he filed the original suit.

Feller Kicks Off Polio Fund Drive

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — Bob Feller, retired Cleveland Indian pitcher, made his first appearance as state chairman of the March of Dimes here Wednesday night in a kick-off meeting for the Wood County fund-raising campaign.

The Cleveland pitching ace, who announced his retirement just last month, spoke at Bowling Green State University's huge auditorium.

Great Expectations

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A glance in our cloudy crystal ball at what lies ahead in 1957 shows one thing clearly:

It will be the most memorable year since 1956!

The forecast is for a fast, fabulous, fantastic, frenzied, frustrating 12 months, full of much folly and fol-de-rol—a year formidable to the wise, fatal to the foolish.

Now is the time to lay in a good supply of vitamin pills. You'll need 'em by the handful to fortify you during the fateful coming days.

In terms of common sense and understanding, the foreign situation will become more foreign than ever. The greatest problem on the international scene will be how to keep the cold war in the freezer.

The greatest threat to world peace will come from inside the Soviet colossus, as its leaders split anew in a deadly game of "Russian roulette," each seeking to grab ultimate power.

A measure on the seriousness of the deepening world crisis will be the fact the French will topple only two cabinets.

Other forecasts, some not as zany as they sound:

Anglo-American amity will increase, keyed by British declarations of a "forgive and forget policy." The declarations will be made just before the start of the annual rush of American tourists to Europe. However, European hotel rates will rise—to help pay for all that winter oil bought from the United States.

A new atmosphere of good will will pervade television, with Walter Winchell and Steve Allen taking turns emceeing for Ed Sullivan during his vacation.

Lassie and Rin-Tin-Tin will wed in the greatest Hollywood marriage since Doug Fairbanks signed up Mary Pickford. The marriage will break up within three months, with both Lassie and Rin-Tin-Tin saying they are still the best of friends and each blaming the split-up on "career troubles."

The outlook in other fields:

Politics—The South will develop a real two-party system—one for national elections, one for state elections.

Business—Big business will get bigger, small business will get lonelier.

Congress—It will start 86 new and separate investigations, each headed by a senator or congressman hoping his inquiry will make him a presidential possibility.

The White House — Every Republican wife who is invited there during the year will look around

Cleveland Hospital Searched For Bomb

CLEVELAND (AP) — A bomb scare at Mount Sinai Hospital Wednesday night sent police searching in every corner of the hospital with the help of doctors and nurses.

A switchboard operator at the hospital, Mrs. Maureen Barrett, 23, said a woman who seemed hysterical called and said her husband had planted a bomb there, then the woman hung up. No evidence of a bomb was found. It was the first bomb scare here in a wave of such scares which has swept the country.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Federal Judge Ben H. Rice Wednesday ordered written arguments presented within 20 days on a defense motion to dismiss two suits by a former Air Force lieutenant against the commander of Randolph Air Force Base.

William Recht Jr. of Woodmere, Long Island, N. Y., filed the suits last August when he was a legal officer in the judge advocate's office at Randolph.

The first suit asked repayment of $250,000 allegedly collected illegally by "agents" of Brig. Gen. John W. Persons from about 1,000 residents of bachelor officers' quarters from 1950 to 1956 for porter and maid service.

The other suit requests $10,000 damages for Recht for "false imprisonment" in an Air Force psychiatric ward for observation after he filed the original suit.

Feller Kicks Off Polio Fund Drive

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP) — Bob Feller, retired Cleveland Indian pitcher, made his first appearance as state chairman of the March of Dimes here Wednesday night in a kick-off meeting for the Wood County fund-raising campaign.

The Cleveland pitching ace, who announced his retirement just last month, spoke at Bowling Green State University's huge auditorium.

Great Expectations

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — A glance in our cloudy crystal ball at what lies ahead in 1957 shows one thing clearly:

It will be the most memorable year since 1956!

The forecast is for a fast, fabulous, fantastic, frenzied, frustrating 12 months, full of much folly and fol-de-rol—a year formidable to the wise, fatal to the foolish.

Now is the time to lay in a good supply of vitamin pills. You'll need 'em by the handful to fortify you during the fateful coming days.

In terms of common sense and understanding, the foreign situation will become more foreign than ever. The greatest problem on the international scene will be how to keep the cold war in the freezer.

The greatest threat to world peace will come from inside the Soviet colossus, as its leaders split anew in a deadly game of "Russian roulette," each seeking to grab ultimate power.

A measure on the seriousness of the deepening world crisis will be the fact the French will topple only two cabinets.

Other forecasts, some not as zany as they sound:

Anglo-American amity will increase, keynoted by British declarations of a "forgive and forget policy." The declarations will be made just before the start of the annual rush of American tourists to Europe. However, European hotel rates will rise—to help pay for all that winter oil bought from the United States.

A new atmosphere of good will will pervade television, with Walter Winchell and Steve Allen taking turns emceeing for Ed Sullivan during his vacation.

Lassie and Rin-Tin-Tin will wed in the greatest Hollywood marriage since Doug Fairbanks signed up Mary Pickford. The marriage will break up within three months, with both Lassie and Rin-Tin-Tin saying they are still the best of friends and each blaming the split-up on "career troubles."

The outlook in other fields:

Politics—The South will develop a real two-party system—one for national elections, one for state elections.

Business—Big business will get bigger, small business will get lonelier.

Congress—It will start 86 new and separate investigations, each headed by a senator or congressman hoping his inquiry will make him a presidential possibility.

The White House — Every Republican wife who is invited there during the year will look around with an eye to how she'd like to rearrange the furniture in 1961.

Medicine—A new wonder drug will be announced for people to take who feel good and wonder what's wrong with them. A sure preventive for the common cold will be found at last—in the form of a government law that anyone who catches one will have to pay a tax on it.

That's about all the crystal ball shows now for 1957, except for one more flat prediction:

There will be no major snow-slides in Florida. If I'm wrong, let me know.

DIES OF INJURIES

Cleveland Hospital Searched For Bomb

CLEVELAND (AP) — A bomb scare at Mount Sinai Hospital Wednesday night sent police searching in every corner of the hospital with the help of doctors and nurses.

A switchboard operator at the hospital, Mrs. Maureen Barrett, 23, said a woman who seemed hysterical called and said her husband had planted a bomb there, then the woman hung up. No evidence of a bomb was found. It was the first bomb scare here in a wave of such scares which has swept the country.

Shrimp, Rice Creole Dish

Raw-frozen shrimp, fully peeled and deveined, now make shrimp cookery very much easier.

So does a 16-page, full - color recipe booklet "Shrimp Tips From New Orleans" just released by United States Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. (price 15 cents). All the tempting recipes use fully peeled and deveined shrimp, either canned, raw-frozen or precooked and frozen.

Shrimp With Fried Rice

Four tablespoons butter or margarine, 1-3 cup chopped onion, 1 garlic clove, cut fine; 1 pound packaged raw-frozen, fully peeled, deveined shrimp, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon cooking oil, 1½ cups uncooked rice, 1 cup chicken broth (hot), 2 cups boiling water, 2 teaspoons salt.

Melt butter in a heavy-bottom pan. Add onion, garlic, shrimp and salt. Cook shrimp over medium heat for 6 minutes, stirring frequently.

Remove shrimp to a warm place, add oil and rice. Increase heat and fry the rice about 3 minutes. Add broth, water, salt.

Reduce heat to a minimum, cover closely and cook rice 15 to 18 minutes without stirring, or until grains are fluffy and tender. Turn off heat. Return shrimp to the pan, cover, and let stand 5 minutes. Serve at once.

Flavor Variations: For an Italian touch, serve with grated Parmesan cheese. For Spanish or Latin flavor, add 2 good pinches of saffron dissolved in 2 tablespoons of hot water. Mix with the rice before adding the shrimp.

Sardines, Beans, Onions In Sandwich

A loyal Maine man, Richard Reed, tells us he likes sardines from local waters best in a real Down East sandwich — sardines, baked beans and onion rings.

At this season of entertaining, however, we'll settle for their inexpensive use in really tempting spreads. Here goes:

Sardine and Cream Cheese Spread

Two cans Maine sardines (3¼ or 4-ounce), 1 package cream cheese, 4 tablespoons mayonnaise, 2 tablespoons chili sauce, ½ teaspoon garlic powder, ¼ teaspoon celery salt, 3 tablespoons lemon juice, paprika.

Drain and mash sardines. Mash cream cheese and add to sardines. Stir in remaining ingredients. Stuff stalks of celery with mixture. Garnish with paprika.

Piquant Sardine Spread

Two cans Maine sardines (3¼ or 4-ounce), 1 teaspoon tomato catsup, 1 teaspoon prepared horseradish, ¼ cup sour cream, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, ¼ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, salt, paprika.

Drain and mash sardines. Add catsup, horseradish, sour cream, lemon juice and Worcestershire sauce. Add salt to taste. Spread on squares of pumpkinnickel bread. Garnish with paprika.

Curried Sardines Indienne

Two cans Maine sardines in mustard sauce, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 1 teaspoon curry powder, ¼ cup chutney, 18 toast fingers.

Mash sardines. Stir in lemon juice, and curry powder. Chop chutney fine and spread on toast fingers. Top with teaspoon of sardine mixture. Place under broiler until bubbly, or serve cold.

Strange Death Of High School Boy Believed Suicide

MOUNT VERNON, Ohio — Knox County authorities today investigated the strange death of a 17-year-old Gambier High School junior, but said all indications point to suicide.

The body of James Wittenmeyer, 17, was found Tuesday by three rabbit hunters.

The body lay in a patch of brush, beside a tree, half a mile south of Gambier. The body was nude, and the youth's clothing was piled nearby.

Sheriff Paul Cochran said Wittenmeyer's hands were tied behind his back, and that a length of clothesline was tied around his neck. The rope apparently had broken. The other end was tied to a tree limb.

The sheriff said a rope had been knotted around one of the youth's hands, but that the other hand apparently had been slipped through a noose and was not tied fast.

Coroner C. L. Harmer of Knox County gave a verdict of death by strangulation, but ordered an autopsy. Sheriff Cochran said he and other officers believed the youth had killed himself.

They said Wittenmeyer's parents are dead, and that he made his home with an uncle and aunt.

Fleck Pears With Spices

Fresh winter pears are a boon to family meals. Eaten out-of-hand, in salads, or spiced and served with roast pork, they are delicious and packed with nutritional values.

From Emma States of Seattle, an enthusiast about West Coast fruit and a first-class thinker-up of good ways to serve it, come these two recipes.

Spicy Pears With Roast Pork
Three ripe Anjou pears, 1 cup pineapple juice, 1/2 cup water, 1/2 cup brown sugar, 2 teaspoons cornstarch, 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon, 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg.

Mix together in saucepan, pineapple juice, water, brown sugar, cinnamon and nutmeg. Stir a little of liquid into cornstarch until smooth, then add to rest of ingredients. Cook until mixture has thickened.

Wash, halve and core pears. Place cut sides down in saucepan and spoon sauce over the top. Cover and cook for 5 minutes. Turn pears halves so that cut sides are up and cook for remaining 5 to 6 minutes, basting frequently with sauce.

When pears are tender, remove from sauce and serve with pork roast.

Pear Torte
Three firm, ripe pears, peeled and sliced, 1 egg, 1/2 cup sugar, 2 tablespoons flour, 1 teaspoon baking powder, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup chopped filberts or walnuts, 1 teaspoon vanilla.

Arrange pears in a layer in a greased 8-inch square pan. Beat egg until frothy and continue beating while adding sugar. Stir together flour, baking powder and salt. Add to egg mixture and stir to combine. Add nuts and vanilla.

Soda Biscuits are Challenge to New Housewife

In this world of modern baking and pre-made mixes, few young housewives know the fine art of making real homemade pastries which take a little time and effort for preparation.

For those who desire the old-fashioned flavor not yet captured in the new wonder short-cut methods, this honey-flavored soda biscuit recipe may prove to be a not too-quickly forgotten treat.

To prepare the biscuits, use 2 cups sifted all-purpose flour, 1 teaspoon baking soda, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1-3 cup shortening, 1/4 cup white (distilled) vinegar, 1/2 cup milk.

Sift together flour, baking soda, and salt. Cut in shortening. Combine vinegar and milk; add all at once to flour mixture; blend lightly. Knead gently. Roll or pat to 1/2-inch thickness. Cut with floured 2-inch cutter. Place on baking sheet. Bake in 450 degree F. (very hot) oven 12-15 minutes. Serve with honey and butter.

For cinnamon breakfast balls, add 3 tablespoons sugar to dry ingredients; cut in shortening. Beat 1 egg; combine with vinegar and milk, using only 1/4 cup milk. Mix and knead dough gently. Pat or roll to 1/2-inch thickness; cut with floured 1-inch cutter; shape lightly into balls. Dip balls in 1/2 cup orange juice, roll in 1/2 cup sugar mixed with 2 tablespoons cinnamon. Place on baking sheet. Bake in 450 degree F. (very hot) oven 10-12 minutes. Yields about 3 dozen. Serve with honey.

Ribs Stew High In Food Value

Here are good stick-to-the-ribs stews that are a meal in a dish. They are rich in flavor, high in food value and rather easy to prepare. You'll enjoy them.

Chinese Beef Stew

One cup sliced celery, 1/2 medium green pepper, sliced, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 can (1 1/4 cups) condensed onion soup, 1 cup cubed cooked beef, 1 cup drained bean sprouts, 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1 teaspoon soy sauce, 2 tablespoons quick cooking tapioca.

Cook celery and green pepper in butter about 2 minutes; do not brown. Add onion soup, beef, bean sprouts, Worcestershire sauce and soy sauce; heat to boiling. Stir in tapioca; simmer about 10 minutes. Serve with hot buttered rice or chow mein noodles.

Lamb Stew Winter Style

One third-cup flour, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/4 teaspoon black pepper, 2 pounds lamb, cubed, 2 large cloves garlic, minced, 2 tablespoons shortening, 1 1/2 cups water, 1 can (1 1/4 cups) condensed tomato soup, 2 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1/4 teaspoon ground marjoram, 6 small onions, 6 small carrots, 2 cups seasoned mashed potatoes (1 envelope instant mashed potatoes).

Combine flour, salt and pepper; roll lamb in this mixture. Brown lamb and garlic in shortening in a skillet which can be used in the oven. Add water, soup, parsley, and marjoram; cover and simmer 1 1/2 hours.

Ohio Polio Cases Show Big Decrease

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — There were fewer polio cases in Ohio last year than any time during the last 11 years, the state health department reported today.

Dr. Frederick Wentworth, chief of the department's division of communicable diseases, said there were 623 cases and 12 deaths last year, compared with 1,296 cases and 37 deaths in 1955.

"It was the lowest number of cases since 1945 when 463 persons contracted polio," Dr. Wentworth said. "Every year since 1945 there have been more cases than we had last year."

The Salk polio vaccine was highly effective among children 5 - 9 years of ages that received shots, he said, although the vaccine does not account for all of the low rate. Dr. Wentworth said fewer persons over 20—those who did not receive the vaccine—contracted polio last year than in previous years.

Add egg mixture and cook until egg has thickened completely. Pour in jar and refrigerate when cool. Fat content of recipe. Liquefied nonfat milk: 0.3 gm.; cornstarch: negligible; egg: 5.5 gm.; total 5.8 gm. Fat content per tablespoon: 0.2 gm.

Like to make a pretty and unusual garnish? Cut out canned pimento with tiny cutters. The cutters come a dozen to a box, in star, heart, club, triangle, flower petal and other shapes. Each measures no more than 3/4-inch in diameter.

Ingenuity Versus Leftovers

Leftovers, well refrigerated and used within two days, can bless your menus. Take a positive attitude toward the remains of a roast, leftover peas, that cup of gravy. Add a can of white asparagus from California — presto — there is heavenly hash.

Heavenly Hash
Two tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 medium-sized onion, chopped, 1 medium-sized green pepper, chopped, 2 cups chopped, cooked ham, 1 canned pimiento, chopped, 3 cups diced, cooked potatoes, 1 1/2-ounce can California white asparagus, drained, 1 10 1/2 ounce can condensed cream of mushroom soup, 1/4 cup catsup,

1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce, 1/4 cup water.
Melt butter or margarine; add onion and green pepper and cook over low heat, stirring occasionally, until tender. Combine ham, pimiento, potatoes and onion mixture; toss lightly.
Arrange half of ham mixture in skillet; top with half of asparagus. Top with remaining ham mixture and asparagus. Combine remaining ingredients, mix well and pour over ingredients in skillet.
Here's another delicious way to use white asparagus.
Asparagus Veal Pie
One pound veal steak, thinly sliced, 2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine, 1 medium-sized onion, sliced, 1 1-pound, 13-ounce can tomatoes, very well drained, 1/4 cup chopped parsley, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 14 1/2-ounce can California white asparagus, drained.
Cook veal in butter or margarine until lightly browned on both sides. Add onion and cook until onion is tender. Arrange veal in bottom of ungreased 10-inch pie plate; top with onion mixture.
Combine tomatoes, parsley, salt and pepper; mix well and arrange over veal and onions. Top with asparagus. Bake covered in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 45 minutes.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

The teamsters are the richest and most influential of all unions. And the most frequently investigated, too. It is as natural that their leaders resent this as it is to be expected that their power shall bring in inquiries upon them.
That is the nature of things American. Power creates power-opponents. Right now the most influential critic of the teamsters is a Senate subcommittee which has subpoenaed several score teamster officials from New York, Portland, Ore., San Francisco and Los Angeles to come to Washington and try a Senate witness chair for size.
Lead-off position in this galaxy of unenthusiastic witnesses is Frank Brewster, who succeeded Dave Beck as head of the combine known as the Western Conference of Teamsters, which runs from the Dakota Badlands to the hills of San Francisco. Mr. Brewster is due in Washington on Jan. 15, along with one of his colleagues.

There will be discussion, because the union's officials, Dave Beck and Jim Hoffa, move cautiously through they sometimes appear to get off impetuous forays across the industrial and financial highways of the land. They are, above all, able strategists—and they move mostly on advice of counsel.
There are some mighty vital issues involved in this fight.
The Hall Syndicate

other investigation of labor and industry alike.
THE SENATE PROBES aren't going to run from this legal battle either. Nor the Senate itself. Without the power to subpoena records, no congressional committee can do effective probing.
Certainly Mr. Kennedy's Government Operation subcommittee would suffer. It is seeking an appropriation of some $200,000 to look into other unions and some companies, too, which it believes is hampering interstate commerce. If it is stopped by the teamsters legal staff on this score, the committee would have to go out of business.
There are some mighty vital issues involved in this fight.
The Hall Syndicate

Goshen Home Extension Club Meets Friday
The Goshen Home Extension Club will conduct its regular meeting Friday from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. at Goshen Grange hall. A sack lunch will be held at noon.
Subjects to be discussed are: "Refinishing Furniture," Mrs. Charles Venable; "Caning," by Mrs. Dean Barber; "Completing Baskets," Mrs. Tom Richards; and "Completing Gloves," Mrs. Thomas Frantz.
One way to achieve a reputation for being a good cook is to plan your menus in advance. This means that you'll avoid combining too many sweet things (or too many sharp flavors) in one meal.

Forecast: Eggs Aplenty In January

January will be piled high with eggs. Also with cans of corn.
Those two basic foods are leaders on the United States Department of Agriculture's list of plentiful foods for January. Here's the complete national list:
Eggs, canned sweet corn, beef, pork, turkeys, broilers and fryers, milk and dairy products, potatoes, onions, dried prunes, canned purple plums, dates, ocean perch fillets.
To get the most for your egg dollar, the department gives the following advice:
Medium eggs may be the best value in September and October, but in December and January the larger eggs become more plentiful and hence relatively less expensive.
The cycle starts in late summer when poultrymen cull the older and less productive hens from laying flocks, and introduce the young pullets to their nests. First efforts of the new generation are the very small "pullet eggs."
As the new birds grow, their eggs grow, too. By early fall, the new flocks are laying medium sizes. Usually in December, the pullets have become vigorous, full-grown hens producing the large, high-quality eggs in great numbers.
But the demand for eggs by sizes doesn't change in the same way, so the price relationships — the "spread" — between sizes of the same grade is determined by the supply. Thus, even though a dozen of large eggs always cost more than a dozen mediums, it's how much more that counts.
The food shopper who remembers that large eggs weigh a minimum of 24 ounces per dozen, medium 21 ounces and small eggs 18 ounces, can quickly figure which size will give her more food — by weight — for her money.
If there's less than an 8- or 9-cent spread between large and medium eggs, the large are an equal or better buy. Conversely, if the mediums are 8 or more cents less than the large — better buy the mediums.
If you're going to use your oven, it's economical to use the broiler at the same time. Thus, if there's a roast and a casserole in the oven, you might put a broiling chicken into the broiler at the same time. Then you've cooked chicken to serve the next day.

IN THE FRATERNITY known as "The Teamsters" there is not much brotherly spirit for Brother Brewster but there is a strong community of interest. An investigation of one could lead to an investigation of all.
It's not the principle; it's the precedent.
The Senate Government Operations Committee is not only looking into possible wrongdoings. Under its special counsel, Bob Kennedy, the subcommittee also wants to know what the local teamsters, the country over, do with some of their money.
The Senate is interested in welfare and fund expenditures—and political contributions as well.
This means, of course, that the subpoenas are duces tecum, which an ancient school marm once told me means, bring along your books and records, too, boys.
Now there is one thing you can say for some of the teamsters' records. They don't gather dust. Some have been known simply to get lost. And some have been subpoenaed so frequently, they are more familiar sights in probers' offices than on the home grounds.

MOST FREQUENTLY the authorities return the books and say and do nothing. This gives the teamsters a legitimate grievance.
If there is something wrong, there should be action by the authorities. If there isn't anything wrong, they say, then they should not be harassed either by the local authorities or even the Senate. So there is mounting sentiment inside the teamsters for defiance of Senate subpoenas duces tecum.
This would set the teamsters not only against the Senate subcommittee but against many local and state authorities as well.
The Teamsters don't exactly shy from a fight. But this one would be with forces as influential as their own. So the decision will be reached only after considerable discussion.
There will be discussion, because the union's officials, Dave Beck and Jim Hoffa, move cautiously through they sometimes appear to get off impetuous forays across the industrial and financial highways of the land. They are, above all, able strategists—and they move mostly on advice of counsel.
THIS TIME they are planning to assemble some 40 or 50 of the teamsters' lawyers in Chicago sometime this month. This attorney have met before in this council of counsels to help make major policy.
The last time they gathered was in May 1955, in Washington, where they launched an attack on the Hobbs Federal Anti-Racketeering Act, which originally was passed "to render more difficult the activities of predatory criminal gangs of the Kelly and Dillinger types," but which the teamsters' lawyers say is now being used unfairly against their union.
The gathering in Chicago, if it is actually called, will be of sharp interest to the government and other unions as well.
If the teamsters decide to defy the Senate committee, and if the law upholds their refusal to show their records to the federal investigators, an important precedent will be set.
Senate investigators will be set back in that case not only in their probe of the teamsters but in any

Stuffing Fills Boned Pocket of Lamb Shoulder

With the assistance of the butcher you can prepare a boned lamb shoulder that will make a hit with the carver-elect as well as with the diners.

An unusual but savory stuffing fills the boned pocket which can be quickly cut into succulent slices.

To prepare the stuffed shoulder, use 1-3 cup yellow corn meal, 1-3 cup cold water, 1 cup boiling water, 2 cups canned apple sauce (1 cup for stuffing) (1 cup for gravy), 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ cup chopped onion, ¼ cup butter or margarine, 1 cup chopped cooked chestnuts, pecans, almonds, or celery, 1 teaspoon poultry seasoning, 4-5 pound boned shoulder of lamb.

Combine corn meal and 1-3 cup water; add to boiling water, cook stirring constantly, until thickened. Add 1 cup of the apple sauce and salt. Cook over boiling water until thoroughly cooked about 20 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Saute onion in butter until light brown; add to apple sauce mixture with chestnuts and poultry seasoning. Place filling in pocket of lamb; roll and tie with string. Season with salt and pepper. Place on rack in roasting pan. Roast in slow oven 325 degrees F., 45 minutes per pound.

For the gravy, use 4 tablespoons lamb fat and drippings in pan, add 4-6 tablespoons flour, blend together.

Add remaining apple sauce (one cup) and about 1½ cups boiling water. Cook until thickened, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper. Yields 6-8 servings.

Voting Machine Firm Incorporates In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The first incorporation of 1957 was issued today by Secretary of State Ted W. Brown to Coyle's Voting Machine Co. of Hamilton.

Martin A. Coyle took out the incorporation for a company to manufacture an dsell a new type of voting machine.

Coyle is Butler County Republican chairman and a member of the election board.

He said the machine would register the choices of voters on a "punchcard" that could be fed through a counting machine by the election board. He said the machines could be installed for about one-third the cost of voting machines operated by levers.

Coyle said the Legislature which meets next week would be asked to sanction use of the new machines.

Passenger cars account for 70 per cent of all motor vehicle miles traveled in the United States.

State Refunds Tax Money To Banks

COLUMBUS, Ohio —From the bankers' viewpoint, the state tax commissioner, Stanley J. Bowers, turned out to be about the biggest Santa Claus in state government.

Bowers' department has all but completed refunding almost 11 million dollars in taxes paid by financial institutions from 1947 to 1955. He has issued 1,233 certificates of abatement which can be used by financial institutions to pay taxes later on.

Decisions by the U. S. and Ohio supreme courts held Ohio was wrong in taxing federal securities held by banks.

The tax involved is an intangible personal property tax, and all revenue from it goes to local governments.

The state decided to make the refunds itself rather than have local governments do so. A special session of the Ohio Legislature last summer changed bank tax laws so the state can recover the refunded taxes over a three-year period.

The special session renewed the two-mill per $100 tax on bank capital and added a special one-mill levy to run three years to make up tax money lost by the state. The taxes do not apply to federal securities.

Ohio Edison Acquires Leroy Lighting System

LEROY, O. — Sale of the Leroy electric distribution system to Ohio Edison Company was completed Monday when Ohio Edison representative made payment of the $78,500 purchase price to village officials.

The village council authorized the sale of the electric system last fall. Authorization for the purchase was given Ohio Edison by the Securities and Exchange Commission Dec. 31.

The Leroy System serves 160 customers. This was the third acquisition of a municipal electric system by Ohio Edison during 1956. Previously the company had acquired the Huron electric system and Plain City generating plant and distribution system.

Herbert Takes Oath As Supreme Court Judge

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Former Gov. Thomas J. Herbert today took his oath as a judge of the Ohio Supreme Court.

Chief Justice Carl V. Wengert administered the oath in the court room with about 50 spectators present.

Three other judges were on the bench with Judge Wengert for the ceremony. They were Kingsley A. Taft, James F. Bell and John M. Mathias.

Herbert, who served as Republican governor from 1947 to 1949, begins a six-year term on the court. He resigned as chairman of the Subversive Activities Control Board in Washington to take the post.

STONES THE MONA LISA.

Hugo Unjaga Vellegas, 42-year-old Bolivian, appears at Paris police station after he was arrested for hurling a rock at the Mona Lisa, famed Leonardo da Vinci painting hanging in the Louvre. The rock shattered protective glass shield over the painting and broke the canvas, chipping finger-nail size fleck of paint from figure's elbow. Police quoted Vellegas as saying, "I had a stone in my pocket and suddenly the idea came to me to throw it."

Start Off The New Year

Start off the new year with a new-old recipe. It's elegant to serve to friends and to use for evening parties and afternoon coffees the whole year through.

This snack — toasted mushroom rolls — was a specialty of our family's house when we were very young. The memory of its delicious flavor and texture has lingered all these years — and recently when we made and tasted it again, we weren't one whit disappointed.

One reason the mushroom rolls were a company favorite in our family was that they could be made well ahead and refrigerated. We can still remember the pattern of the linen tea towel — damped and wrung out — that was always carefully placed over them to keep them fresh! Just before the rolls were to be served, they were toasted in the oven or under the broiler.

Along with the mushroom rolls, you might serve cheese straws. In our mother's kitchen the straws were always prepared from extra pie dough sprinkled with grated cheddar cheese and paprika. That it still a good way, though nowadays a prepared mix is likely to be used for the pastry. If you do use a mix enrich it by cutting in a little butter or margarine when you empty it from the package; or use cream instead of water to moisten the mix.

Should you want to have a cheese spread on hand, we suggest using an excellent combination we tasted recently: Roquefort cheese mixed with butter and minced walnuts. If you have one of the French rotary graters, be sure to use it for mincing the nuts. This mixture is delectable with crackers or rounds of crusty French rolls as well as with slices of fresh apples or pears.

Toasted Mushroom Rolls

Ingredients: 1/2 pound mushrooms, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon curry powder, 1/4 teaspoon onion powder, pepper, 12 to 14 thin slices bread, extra butter.

Method: Wipe mushrooms with damp cloth; with a sharp knife, chop both caps and stems fine. Melt 2 tablespoons butter in a 9- or 10-inch skillet; add chopped mushrooms; sprinkle with lemon juice, salt, curry powder, onion powder and pepper to taste. Cook quickly until wilted, about 5 minutes and stir several times; very little juice should collect in pan. Remove crusts from bread; roll each slice well with a rolling pin to flatten; this technique prevents bread from breaking when it is being made into a roll. Lightly spread one side of each slice of bread with extra soft butter. Spread about 1 tablespoon of the mushroom mixture over each buttered side of bread slice. Roll up each slice as for a jelly roll. (Ends of rolls may be fastened with wooden picks although we do not find this necessary if seam side of bread slice, after it is rolled, is rested on baking sheet.) Brush rolls lightly, on all sides, with melted butter or spread lightly with very soft butter. Place rolls on baking sheet, leaving a little space between each. (A baking sheet — or jelly roll pan — that is about 9 by 13 by 1 inches across the top will hold the number of rolls made by this recipe.) Bake in hot (425 degrees) oven about 10 minutes or until browned. Turn rolls halfway through baking period if bottoms are browning faster than tops. Serve at once while very hot.

Note: Firm compact slices of bread, each about 3/8-inch thick, are fine for this recipe.
